Jupiter Pluto expands themes of death and rebirth for personal empowerment.

Jupiter Neptune expands the mystical qualities of Neptune.

Jupiter Uranus expands the revolutionary nature of Uranus

Jupiter Saturn is most useful for manifestation for things on our resume or what you do and what the world needs to have done is aligned and supportive.

Saturn and Neptune – Saturn's boundaries, rules, and learning through limitation is combined with Neptune's perception that "this world" isn't real...only the mystical and transcendent is real. Is about how to bring the boundless into practical form or into the boundaries of this reality in ways that are useful.

Combines the Senex (Latin word for Old Man-someone in good standing in the family and community) with the Eternal Youth. Puer or Puella. Old when you are Young and Young when you are Old. When unhealthy version may seem alternately controlling, old, cranky know-it-all or an irresponsible youth who doesn't take on any responsibility.

Saturn Neptune is the practical dreamer who can ground mystical visions or dreams into this reality. Many mystics have this signature (Rudolph Steiner and Daniel Giamario) Intent is to synthesize practicality with spirituality.

Uranus and Pluto – (1963-1969 and in 1968 Jupiter was conjunct them both) Combines totally up and out with totally down and in simultaneously.

Transcendent creativity, expansion of consciousness and the mind, breaking through to new realities through revolutionary change is meeting with the transformative underworld process of death and rebirth through feeling what you really feel and facing the fears.

Abbie Hoffman describes this combination by saying, "Sure we were Crazy, Arrogant, and Delusional, but we were also Right!"

This 60's combo transformed our ability to synthesize our ability to communicate in both worlds. 1968 Jupiter further amplified Pluto's Wild, powerful, organic irrational descent into the deepest interior with Uranian breakthrough, novelty, ultimate freedom and ascension.

1965-66 Saturn and Chiron were opposite Uranus and Pluto

Saturn and Pluto – 1947, 1948, 1980's and 2001 square 2010

This is the world of Human Laws or Rules encountering the world of Natural Instinctual Law. Pluto (water) and Saturn (earth) together when child learns not to stick finger in fire, both are about natural law. Both are feminine energies. Saturn is like Vishnu – Pluto is like Shiva... Patriarchy can't control Pluto – can't control death and destruction.

The intent of the Saturn Pluto combination is to have the rules, the order or human created structures of life, and the conscious mind, get-along with the purely instinctual, organic realm of conscious awareness.

Pluto in Capricorn (or when Pluto transits natal Saturn or Saturn and Pluto are together in the sky) the synthesis is about having a different relationship with the operating manual – a blending of natural human desire for order and security with the wild, unpredictable, instinctual nature we also carry.

Saturn, Uranus and Neptune 1988 to 1991. Occurs every 650 years and not always in Capricorn. In 1993 Uranus and Neptune were exact but Saturn had moved on to Aquarius.

This combination is the mystical, eccentric, spacious non-secular (spiritual) qualities combining with the secular (worldly), grounded practical energy of Saturn.

Uranus and Neptune are informing Saturn of a larger view. Uranus dislocates Saturn's assemblage point and Neptune dissolves, bringing in the mystical qualities and feelings of love and compassion. When healthy in this combination Saturn is intelligent enough to see the old order is finished and something revolutionary and cosmic is being birthed.

This was when the Soviet Union disbanded and the Berlin Wall came down.

Neptune and Pluto – a rare combo. Mystical, ideal and wild unfettered organic energy that is irrational and out of control at the same time.

Chiron with any other planet is the leading edge to distill the elixir of the other planet. Chiron Neptune (2009 to 2012) wound of punctured idealism.
